

Radomsko guide for investor

City Radomsko

The main advantage of Radomsko is location on important routes and its constantly developing technical infrastructure. However, the greatest asset of the city is its inhabitants, who are enterprising, active and open to any business initiatives. Every year, local promotion and trading events that facilitate the presentation of companies and the recruitment of new customers are organized in Radomsko. Numerous institutions, insurance companies and banks create an environment easy to do business in. The local authorities activities are mainly aimed at activating the city's business, improving the natural environment, adjusting the road system to current needs and improving security on the roads.

The presence of Poland in the European Union makes possible new contacts with foreign partners and first of all recruiting structural funds for planned investments. As there are many tasks in the city, their execution will require external support. Activities aimed at acquiring a strategic investor for investments areas and creation of new jobs constitute top priorities of local authorities. The investment area, located by the DK-1 route, is in the Łódź Special Economic Zone. The conditions offered by the Zone and the discount options drew interest from important investors (Peugeot, Hyundai). Radomsko foreign partners (twin cities) include a Hungarian town Makó, German County - Offenbach and Ukrainian City of Voznesensk. Mutual cooperation covers, inter alia, the area of education, however, increasingly frequent are contacts between entrepreneurs, representatives of police, fire brigades, and other organizations and associations. Radomsko outside the supporting climate for new investors and with good communications infrastructure, offers the exceptional possibility of introducing the city to the rich historical tradition. Walking on Radomsko streets it isn't impossible to pass by old, historic tenements, baroque buildings and not to feel the spirit of enterprise of inhabitants. We invite you for the walk in Radomsko.
