II. FDI in Poland (according to the National Bank of Poland)

According to preliminary data from the National Bank of Poland (NBP), in 2006 the value of FDI in Poland was 13,922 million USD. This was up by 6,254 million USD, or more than 55%, from 2005. A profile of the foreign capital inflow in the form of FDI in 2005-2006 is presented below.

Table 2. FDI into Poland in 2005-2006 (million USD)

Year	Elements of capital inflow			Totals
	Shares	Reinvested profits	Other capital

2006	2,987	5,636	5,299	13,922

Source: preliminary National Bank of Poland (NBP) data

The figure of 13,922 million USD, is comprised of funds for the purchase of shares in Polish direct investment companies (2,987 million USD), reinvested profits (5,636 million USD) and other capital (5,299 million USD).

It should be noted that as in previous years, in 2006 the largest element of FDI was reinvested profits, making up over 40% of the total of FDI (50% in the previous year). Meanwhile, funds for the purchase of shares fell by 841 million USD, i.e. 28% less than in the previous year. In 2006, a positive trade credit balance between capital related entities, increased the value of the FDI capital inflow by 5,299 million USD.

1. Number of companies with foreign capital in 2005

In 2005 the Polish Statistical Office (GUS), recorded the activities of 16,816 companies in Poland with foreign capital<sup>1</sup>. Predominant in this number were small companies, i.e. those with up to 49 employees. There were 13,716 such entities, of which almost 71.8% were enterprises with fewer than 10 employees. In the medium-sized sector of companies (with 50 to 249 employees) there were 2,221 entities. There were 900 large companies (with 250 or more employees).

In terms of the business sector, the most numerous activities of companies were in trade and repairs (29.1%) and industrial processing (30.1%). In third place were firms offering real estate and business services (19.6%).

As for the country of origin of the foreign shareholders, the largest number of companies were those with German capital (5,666), followed by Dutch capital (1,807) and then French capital (1017).

2. Employment in companies with foreign capital

In 2005, the companies polled by GUS employed 1,186,148 persons. The greatest number (68.7% of all employees in companies with foreign capital), were employed in large companies. The number of employees in large companies was 815,153. Medium-sized companies (50-249 employees) represented 21.7% of all employment in companies with foreign capital, while small companies employed only 9.6% of the total.

The most numerous group, making up 55.9% of all employees, worked in companies from the industrial processing sector, while 20.8% were employed in the trade and repairs.

IV. Foreign investors in Poland (according to PAIiIZ)

As in previous years, a team from PAIiIZ conducted a study among entities with foreign capital. 1,500 companies were invited to participate. All had to have a foreign investor who held at least 10% of the shares and had made an investment worth at least 1 million USD. Completed questionnaires were received from 30% of these companies, ranging from the largest foreign investors doing business in Poland over many years, to new companies who had invested capital in Poland for the first time during the past year.

As of the end of December 2006, 1,091 companies from 37 countries were included in the List of Major Foreign Investors in Poland. The most numerous group were investors from Germany (248), the Netherlands (124), and the United States (115). Companies from these three countries together made up 44.8% of the investments studied by PAIiIZ. Detailed information on the presence in Poland of investors from specific countries, is presented in tables elsewhere in this publication.
