DID YOU KNOW THAT

Intel – the biggest in history foreign investment in Poland will be in a field of advanced electronics

In June 2023, it was announced that the American concern Intel, a global leader in the production of integrated circuits, will build its facilities in Poland. The project, worth PLN 20 billion, is currently the largest foreign investment in Poland's history and will strongly link Poland to the newly being developed European value chain of advanced electronics.

Goodram – the only European producer of consumer RAM modules

Poland is the seat and place of establishment of Wilk Elektronik S.A. – manufacturer of computer memory under the Goodram brand. The company specializes in the production of RAM modules and SSDs, as well as other products. Currently, it is the only manufacturer of consumer RAM modules in Europe, it also produces electronics for industrial application and servers.

Poland – prospective market with a great potential

For Poland in 2023, the forecast of the turnover dynamics on the electronics market is 4% y/y. This will be the fourth year of growth on this market in Poland. This growth is supported by digital transformation, programs supporting IT spending, the development of cloud technology, favorable legislative changes, increasing access to the Internet and the great importance of the BPO (Business Services Outsourcing) sector, which is a high consumer of electronics.
