Poland as the logistic hub

Since the outbreak of the conflict in Ukraine, Poland, as a neighbor of Ukraine, has become a key country and a logistics hub ensuring supplies to this country. The border airport next to the city of Rzeszów is an important point on the map and the Podkarpackie region plays a key logistic role for military supplies to Ukraine.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Modular firearm of the 21st century

The Polish MSBS-5.56 "Grot" carbine is the latest design produced by the Polish company Fabryka Broni "ŁUCZNIK" - Radom. The modular design based on the requirements of the modern battlefield make it considered a versatile and effective weapon. The carbine is currently being tested in combat in the conflict in Ukraine, where it is considered one of the best shooting weapons helping this country to protect its independence.

FlyEye: sky-high innovation for providing security

The aircraft system „FlyEye”, developed by Flytronic (part of the Polish WB Group), an advanced military surveillance drone, is offered by NSPA, i.e. NATO Support and Procurement Agency - the main logistics and procurement agency of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation.

Safe sky and ground thanks to Polish defense products

The portable anti-aircraft missile system "Piorun", manufactured by the Polish company Mesko, has proven to be an effective anti-aircraft weapon, providing protection against airborne threats.

Another example of Polish defense product is self-propelled tracked gun-howitzer „AHS Krab”. Produced by Polish state company Huta Stalowa Wola (HSW) vehicle is aimed to effectively provide an advantage on the battlefield.

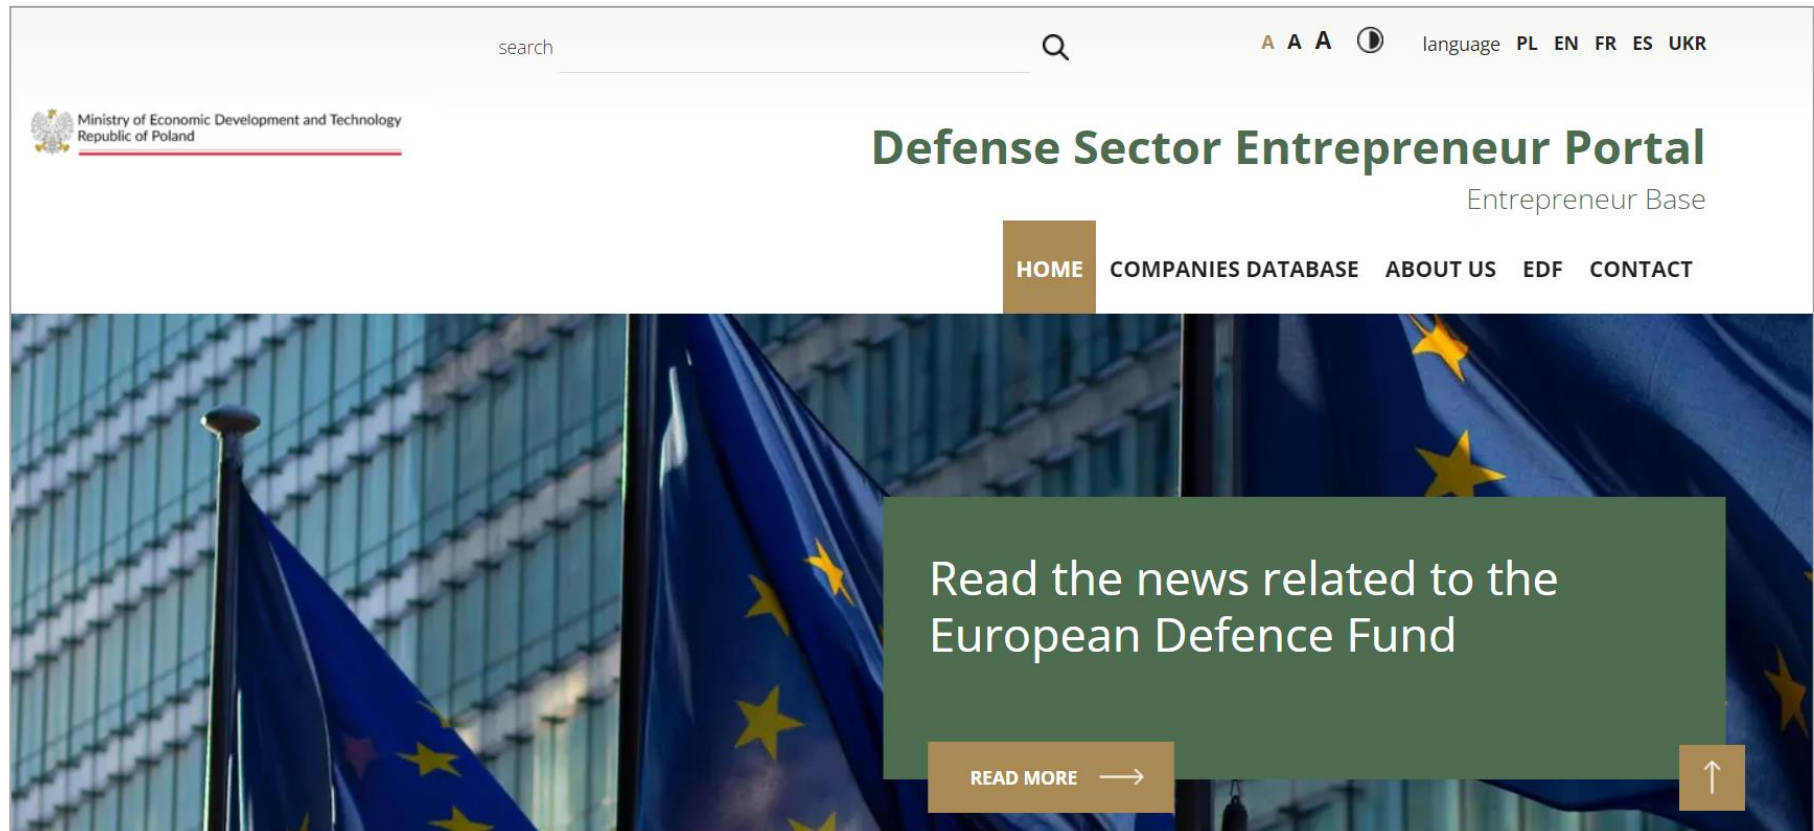

From almost the first moments of the invasion of Ukraine, when Polish weapons have been delivered to Ukraine and strengthened the Ukrainian defenders, they have proved its usefulness in military operations supporting national defense.
